AXIA Capital Markets LLC announces the appointment of Clinton Webb as a Vice President, Equity Research

Clinton Webb joins AXIA's New York office

New York, USA – January 3rd, 2017 – AXIA Capital Markets LLC, ("ACM"), a subsidiary of AXIA Ventures Group ("AXIA"), announces the appointment of Clinton Webb as Vice President in its Equity Research Division.

Mr. Webb joins AXIA with a background of vast experience, covering a wide range of companies in Shipping and Energy. Most recently and prior to joining AXIA, Mr. Webb was an Equity Research Associate covering Maritime Shipping at GMP Securities, building coverage of 20 shipping companies in the dry bulk, LNG, oil and product tanker sectors. Prior to GMP Securities, Mr. Webb worked at Stephens Inc. as an Equity Research Associate, where he covered 35 companies in the energy sector.

Mr. Webb holds an MBA in Finance from Indiana University, Bloomington and has received a BA in Political Science from Union College, New York.

Mr. Dimitrios Athanasopoulos, Group Managing Director of AXIA, stated the following: "We are very pleased to have Clinton on board the AXIA Group. His background and experience are both highly relevant to our operations and will, as such, allow him to significantly contribute to AXIA's expansion plans, providing insightful research and an invaluable perspective to our clients. Shipping is a key strategic industry for AXIA with continuous investments and long term commitment. We extend a warm welcome to Clinton and wish him great success in his journey with us".
